

4 NEWS ROUNDUP

All the news that matters from the past month

8 ANALYSIS

Youth work National Youth Agency sets out vision for sufficient, high-quality youth services 8

Social care Report calls for kinship care priority 10

Children's services Improving council data 11

Health Gender identity service review 12

Education Oasis founder says secure school will focus on giving young people 'an education for life' 13

Youth justice Proposals for tougher community and custody sentences concern youth justice experts 14

Youth work Programme for youth workers will boost support for young people affected by violence 15

Early years Building a better early education system 16

18 INTERVIEW

Ndidi Okezie UK Youth chief executive

20 VIEWPOINT

Opinion Craig Bennett on the joys of outdoor learning

Feedback Youth work curriculum; charity donations

Editorial Derren Hayes on children's services funding

Opinion We must invest in children for the long term; Review adoption laws to reset old thinking

24 FAST-TRACK TRAINING

We explore the fast-track training schemes designed to boost the children and young people's workforce

28 TWENTY YEARS OF YOTS

Youth offending team managers reflect on the past two decades, while the YJB chair considers the future

31 SPECIAL REPORT Residential Care

Policy Latest developments as the sector braces for a surge in placements amid pandemic

Research Outcomes Analysis; Glebe House Circles pilot; social pedagogical perspectives; play therapy

Practice Adviser support helps transition from care; restorative approach cuts offending

COMING UP... Youth Justice (Dec), SEND (Jan) Early Years (Feb)

44 PROFESSIONAL

Inspections Impact of the pandemic 44

Legal Update School attendance in relation to coronavirus; the EU Settlement Scheme 46

Research Changes in Children and Young People's Mental Health Symptoms During Lockdown 48

Funding Youth Endowment Fund 49

Leadership Mike Thompson, founder and chair, Childbase Partnership 50

How I Got Here Tish Feilden, psychotherapist and co-founder of charity Jamie's Farm 51

Commissioning Andrew Rome on the implications of more fragmented commissioning arrangements 52

53 PRACTICE

Participation in Action Was Not Heard: Young people's film shines light on children's rights 53

Local Spotlight East Riding of Yorkshire Council: The effect of an 'inadequate' rating on the authority 54

57 #CHANCES4CHILDREN

Nursery steps up call for shoes for disadvantaged children; guide for school staff to support young carers