

14

20

44

4 NEWS ROUNDUP

All the news that matters from the past month

8 ANALYSIS

Social care Social work leaders say Care Review's first report fails to recognise system-wide problems that result in cautious child protection practice 8

Early years Calls for government support as childcare provider closures rise during pandemic 10

Health Independent review of drugs highlights five ways to boost support for young people 11

Youth justice Changes youth offending teams have made during Covid-19 12

Youth work Author Howard Williamson on lessons for youth workers as the Milltown Boys turn 60 13

#Chances4Children Sector experts on tackling the challenges identified during the pandemic 14

16 INTERVIEW

Mary Jackson, chief executive of social work training programme Frontline

17 VIEWPOINT

Feedback Care Review needs radical reboot; Five Rivers invests in the future

Editorial Derren Hayes on statutory relationships, sex and health education

Opinion DCSs must speak about poverty and funding; Recognise adolescence in policy and practice

20 FEATURE

A DECADE ON FROM THE SUMMER OF RIOTS It is 10 years since England was rocked by rioting and looting. Experts, charities and young people explore whether lessons were learned and if it could happen again

25 SPECIAL REPORT Sexual health and relationships

Policy Schools are now required to teach relationships sex and health education (RSHE) amid the growing online threats and challenges around consent and harassment; experts discuss getting RSHE right

Research The impact of pornography on young people and how schools can cover the topic in statutory RSHE

Practice Northumberland gets schools up to speed in statutory RSHE; Newcastle centre trains young people to deliver abuse awareness sessions

COMING UP... CSE (September), Special Educational Needs and Disabilities (October), Youth Violence (November)

36 PROFESSIONAL

Inspections Key recommendations from Ofsted's review into sexual abuse in schools and colleges 36

Commissioning How commissioners, providers and community groups came together to redesign the social care system in Birmingham 38

Research Early Education and Care During Covid-19 Boosts Language and Executive Function 40

Funding Local Connections Fund 41

Legal Anonymisation in the courts 43

44 PRACTICE

Case Study The Cedar Foundation's Transitions Service 44

Local Spotlight A new leadership team has delivered improvements at North East Lincolnshire Council 46

How I Got Here Chelsea Bryan, registered manager, the Orchard children's home, Taunton 49