

6 NEWS ROUNDUP

All the news that matters from the past month

10 ANALYSIS

Social care CYP Now investigation reveals councils increasingly using 'golden hellos' to attract and retain social workers to compete with recruitment agencies 10

Social care The importance of a wider support package for staff in efforts to retain social workers 12

Health Experts welcome refresh of health standards for secure settings, but warn delivery will be challenging 13

Education How latest guidance on the pupil premium is an opportunity for schools to review how funding is used and introduce a tiered model of spending 14

Youth justice Why youth justice services need a more collaborative approach with young people 16

Youth work Young leaders devise a blueprint for what a fair support system would look like 17

18 INTERVIEW

Tessy Ojo, chief executive of youth charity The Diana Award

19 VIEWPOINT

Your shout Better assessments key to the right support, says Mark Owers, children's services and system adviser

Editorial Derren Hayes on shortage of care placements

Opinion Reform Ofsted to focus on improving outcomes; Asylum reforms are a gamble with young lives

22 FEATURE

Social prescribing Prescriptions for non-medical therapies are increasingly being offered to children and young people with mental health and other difficulties. Experts explain the difference it can make to young lives

27 SPECIAL REPORT Commissioning Children's Social Care

Policy Government plans aim to tackle the challenging environment faced by commissioners, with increasing numbers of children in the system and inflation pushing up care fees

Key data Factors influencing children's social care commissioning

The big debate Will regional commissioning improve sufficiency and efficiency of placements?

Practice Trauma-informed commissioning delivers savings; Step-down service improves placement stability; Regional sufficiency strategy controls costs

COMING UP... Mental Health in Schools (July), Speech, Language and Communication Needs (August) Resettlement in the Community (September)

38 PROFESSIONAL

Legal update Kinship care arrangements 38

Inspections clinic Secure training centre assurance visits 40

Leadership Investing in essential skills 42

Funding focus Youth Investment Fund Refurbishment Grant 43

44 PRACTICE

Case study Young people co-create a website bringing together local mental health information 44

Local spotlight Hull City Council 46

Participation in action Peer Action Collective peer researchers 48

How I got here Sean Cowden, early years chef lecturer, London Early Years Foundation 49

Children & Young People Now is a magazine and website for professionals working at all levels with children, young people and families. The magazine provides in-depth analysis, opinion and articles on best practice, targeting managers and senior practitioners involved in the commissioning and delivery of services. The website provides a breaking news service throughout the day for all practitioners and a host of resources, including information on careers and funding.